A LETTER FROM our BOARD CHAIR

Dear Friends,

We were thrilled to welcome audiences back to Antaeus for live performances in 2022!

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to each of you for your continued support. During these challenging times for the arts, your generosity reminds us that our work matters to you, and that Antaeus remains an artistic home for so many people. We are proud of everything that we accomplished this past year, and we feel inspired about the future. This Annual Report shares highlights from our 2021/22 Season.

What may not be immediately evident in the report is a significant change to Antaeus's financial model. In the past, Antaeus was a community where professional actors performed for a very modest stipend. I am happy to share that this past season we compensated actors with an hourly rate for both rehearsals and performances. This change has increased production budgets by about 140%. At the same time, we remain committed to bringing audiences more high-quality productions each season.

Your crucial support allows us to focus on continued stability, growth, and artistic success. Our top priorities are to maintain the high artistic quality for which Antaeus is known; to foster a diverse and welcoming community of artists; and to ensure that our work is inclusive and accessible to all audiences.

Thanks to our remarkable community of supporters, I am confident that we will be able to reach these goals. On behalf of the Antaeus board of directors, company and staff, I thank you from my heart, and look forward to seeing you at the theater.

Warmly,

Evie DiCiaccio, Board Chair
Antaeus Theatre Company

ABOUT ANTAEUS

MISSION

Antaeus is an actor-driven theater company that explores and produces timely and timeless works, grounded in our passion for the Classics. We illuminate diverse human experiences through performance, training, and outreach.

We believe in the transformative power of live theater.

OUR VALUES

ARTISTIC EXCELLENCE Some of the finest artists in the American theater call Antaeus their home. We believe in excellence and strive for greatness. We believe in taking creative risks and working above and beyond our comfort zones in order to create experiences that stimulate, inspire, and challenge our audiences.

COMPANY We are a community built by artists who have chosen to contribute their vast array of talents to Antaeus. Our dedication to the larger group is our strength, and makes the whole greater than the sum of its parts.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT Theater is a profoundly social act. Antaeus is a gathering place where actors and audiences can come together for a shared experience. We recognize it is important to engage our audiences on and off the stage. Using theater as a catalyst, we stimulate important conversations to nurture understanding and create empathy.

INCLUSIVITY We are committed to creating a welcoming environment and deeper inclusion within our company. Antaeus strives for diversity through Company membership, Board membership, staff, inclusive casting, choice of artistic material, and through our community engagement. We are a space where all voices are heard.

RESPECT We are committed to actively communicating by both listening and hearing without prejudice; we value each other's opinions. We approach our conversations with empathy, generosity, and a collaborative spirit to build a lasting foundation that honors our commitments to each other and the company.

ARTISTIC GROWTH We have a thirst for knowledge and are committed to growing as artists. Grounded in classical text and training, we are an artistic home where professional actors can continue to work on their craft amongst their peers. We inspire the next generation of theater artists through performance, education, and outreach.

ACCOUNTABILITY Antaeus builds trust through mutual respect and integrity in all of our interactions. We keep our word and honor our commitments to the company, the community, our audiences, and each other.

PROFESSIONALISM Antaeus is a leader in the professional arts community, which is reflected in the quality and vision of our artists, staff, and board members.

2021/22 SEASON

After nearly two years of pandemic closure, we were thrilled to return to live, in-person programming with ClassicsFest, Lab Results, and William Shakespeare's Hamlet in 2021/22. We also released Season Three of The Zip Code Plays: Los Angeles, our original audio series that has reached 90,000+ audiences internationally.

NEW CLASSICS INITIATIVE

We seek to uplift fresh and diverse creative voices through our New Classics Initiative (NCI), which nurtures new play development. NCI exemplifies our commitment to broadening the scope of classical theater, and supporting cultural equity and inclusion.

Our NEXT Commissions launched in 2021 with an emphasis on amplifying stories from BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color) writers. The two playwrights commissioned for the inaugural cycle of our NEXT program - Zola Dee and Marlow Wyatt - are now nearing completion on their plays, and we will be commissioning two new playwrights during our upcoming year. Our goal is to produce these commissions in future seasons alongside celebrated classics - a combination that we feel contrasts and enhances the impact of both.

Over this past year, we hosted 10 Roundtables in our Antaeus Playwrights Lab. These internal readings allowed playwrights to hear their full-length plays brought to life by Antaeus actors, followed by a dramaturgical discussion to help guide the final stages of each playwright's work. Several of these plays also were featured as part of our reading series, Lab Results, in February 2022.

By creating a supportive structure to cultivate exciting new plays, we are not only creating something of tremendous value for our local community; we are fostering the development of extraordinary art to enrich the wider world of theater for generations to come.

This project is supported, in part, by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors through the Department of Arts and Culture.

This project is supported in part by the National Endowment for the Arts. To find out more about how National Endowment for the Arts grants impact individuals and communities, visit www.arts.gov.

NEXT Commissions are Generously Sponsored in part by:
SONJA BERGGREN & PATRICK SEAVER

THE AMBIES

The Zip Code Plays: Los Angeles, our audio podcast series, was nominated for the Podcast Academy's annual awards for excellence in audio, The Ambies®, in the Best Fiction Podcast category. Although we didn't take home the award, we were very honored to be the only theater company nominated! We are so proud of all the hard work that was put into these audio plays by our entire creative team, and a big thank you to everyone who has listened and explored L.A. with us!

MAYOR'S COMMENDATION

Thank you to Glendale's Mayor Ardy Kassakhian for joining us for Hamlet and for also giving us some Commendations! We are so lucky to be in Glendale and for the city's incredible support.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

THE ZIP CODE PLAYS SALONS

Our community Salon series gives audience members a behind-the-scenes look at The Zip Code Plays. Attendees listen to the plays and also have the opportunity to hear from the playwrights, directors, and actors that brought these LA-inspired stories to life.

Antaeus presented virtual and in-person Salons with a variety of local groups this past year. Partners included the Los Angeles Public Library, the Pacoima Historical Society, Brand Library & Art Center, the Brand Associates, The Glendale Historical Society, the L.A. Conservancy, and the City of Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Parks.

GLENDALEOUT LOUD

We were thrilled to co-host a free community event in partnership with GlendaleOut in July. GlendaleOut Loud featured the writings of LGBTQIA+ and allies in our Black Box Theater, and gave attendees the opportunity to meet like-minded creative folks and find community.

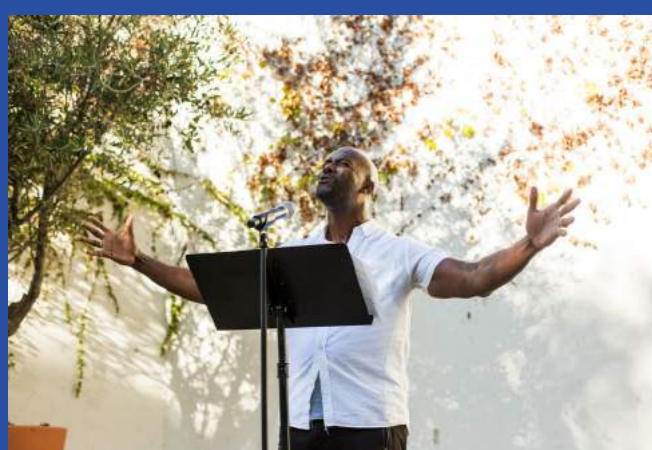

LIBRARY PROJECT

Antaeus was awarded a significant grant from The Ahmanson Foundation to support a major modernization and expansion project for our theatrical Library, which is one of the largest collections of its kind on the West Coast. Through this project, we will expand the Antaeus Library collection with work from playwrights who are underrepresented in the historic classical canon. We will also build a detailed, searchable database for our collection, and through a partnership with Glendale Central Library, the works in the Antaeus Library will be accessible to the general public in 2023.

We also received a generous grant from the California Arts Council Impact Projects program, which will help support a second phase of the Library Project! We are thankful to The Ahmanson Foundation and the State of California for recognizing the importance of this initiative. Through this project, Antaeus will be better equipped to serve our diverse artists, audiences, and students in the greater Los Angeles community.
